

I am opposed to any further deregulation that would allow the media giants to expand their holdings and influence. Media corporations would pursue and present self-serving, selective, one-sided news stories and squelch debate, opposing viewpoints and commentary. Deregulation would therefore weaken and endanger our democracy.